Beautifully reformed townhouse with a GARDEN. The current owner has lovingly modernised the property to a very high standard. This stylish and elegant townhouse is located in the pretty village of Guaro, in a quiet street with good access to the main road (A-7100) to Monda and the direction of Marbella, which is just a 25 min. drive. It is an authentic reformed Andalusian house, with thick plastered walls, wooden beams carrying the ceilings and a lovely courtyard with beautiful fig trees, that feels like a secret garden in the middle of the village. From the street, small steps lead you to the entrance of the house. When you enter, you arrive in a living room with window that looks out on the street in front of the house. There is a cloakroom on this level. Steps lead you to the first bedroom, which is right above the living room and also has a window that overlooks the front of the house. When you walk straight after entering the house, little steps take you to another living room on your left, a kitchen on your right and the door to the courtyard in front of you. The kitchen and second living room have both windows that overlook the outside space. Next to the kitchen are stairs...
