Requiring some updating this spacious three bedroom apartment close to the beach in Benalmadena Costa represents excellent value. The living room is unusually large and has a pleasant balcony from which you can sit and watch the world go by. The three bedrooms are of a good size and two of them have access to a large terrace with beautiful views of the sea. If your budget is limited, you want a really good sea view and you don't mind doing a bit of fixing, then this is the place for you.
